DEL AMO FASHION CENTER

CHEN ART GALLERY

The Chen Art Gallery's impressive, world-class art collection houses a beautiful array of more than 1,000 artifacts spanning 5,000 years of Chinese history, from the earliest Neolithic Era pottery to Ming and Qing imperial palace collections. See permanent exhibits that include a gorgeous Qing Dynasty imperial throne room and an elegant Ming Dynasty bedroom. Other displays include such treasures as imperial porcelains, jade carvings, ancient bronze statues, snuff bottles and so much more.

DEL AMO FASHION CENTER

Del Amo Fashion Center is a state-of-the-art, multi-level shopping destination and the largest retail center in the Western U.S. As part of Del Amo's upscale shopping and entertainment experience, the center features more than 2.7 million square feet of shopping, several top-notch eateries including FRIDA and Din Tai Fung, a four-level parking structure that can accommodate nearly 2,000 cars and an indoor/outdoor aesthetic with live music and bistro lights to add ambiance. Del Amo Fashion Center provides visitors with a true Los Angeles County luxury shopping experience in the heart of the South Bay.

MADRONA MARSH PRESERVE

The Madrona Marsh Preserve in Torrance is thought to be one of the last remaining vernal freshwater marshes in Los Angeles County and this gorgeous pocket of wildlife in the heart of the city is one few travelers know about. The marsh is classified as a Significant Ecological Area (SEA) because the land contains irreplaceable biological resources, it is home to more than 275 native and 50 non-native species of birds, as well as an array of plant life and other living creatures. Free to the public, anyone can stroll through the grounds on a self-guided tour, or enjoy a docent lead adventure.

TORRANCE BEACH

Nestled between Redondo Beach and Malaga Cove, Torrance Beach is one of the city's most remarkable hidden gems. Here, visitors can bask in the glittering Southern California sunshine and play volleyball in the soft sand while avoiding most of the crowds found at many other beaches in Los Angeles County. Home to The Strand Beach Bike Path, more than 300 parking spaces and warm waves perfect for water sports, this 40-acre beach is an ideal venue for local activities and travelers looking to get away.

TORRANCE CRAFT BREWERIES

With 11 brewing companies and brewhouses, it comes as no surprise that Torrance is rapidly becoming known as a hub for Southern California's craft beer scene. The city's innovative brewers have found a way to turn the hard water into a distinctive ingredient that contributes to the making of great beer. With beer tours and a brewery map all its own, Torrance is proud to be home to award-winning brewmasters and beers alike.
