

DISCOVER TORRANCE So Cal

Torrance Beach

DiscoverTorrance.com

Check out our California Welcome Center located at the Del Amo Fashion Center!

1 King's Hawaiian

Home to the one and only King's Hawaiian Bakery & Restaurant in the continental U.S., this is a must-stop to pick up some of their most popular bakery items like the Hawaiian Paradise cake. And the French toast is ah-mazing.

2808 Sepulveda Blvd, Torrance, CA • 310.530.0050

2 Mitsuwa Marketplace

Located in the Del Amo Fashion Center, this is the largest Japanese store in the area. You'll find everything from groceries and fresh sashimi to bakery items, household goods and several restaurants.

3525 W Carson St, Suite 164, Torrance, CA • 310.782.0335

3 Old Torrance

This area is home to some of the best eateries and the cutest shops in town. Pick up a treat from the iconic Torrance Bakery or relax with a cocktail on the patio at Madre! Oaxacan Restaurant & Mezcaleria. Then hit up the one-of-a-kind shops for a souvenir or two.

4 Torrance Farmers Market

If you happen to be visiting on a Tuesday or a Saturday, be sure to stop by the largest farmers' market in the South Bay. Here, you'll find a seasonal variety of top quality produce brought in each week from 60 California farms.

Charles Wilson Community Park
2200 Jefferson St, Torrance, CA • 310.781.7520

5 Torrance Beach

No trip to Torrance is complete without at least a few relaxing hours on the 1.5 miles of uncrowded and pristine Torrance Beach – a true gem with perfect surfing conditions and picturesque views of the beautiful Palos Verdes Peninsula.

289 Paseo De La Playa, Torrance, CA

6 Madrona Marsh

This preserve is one of the only vernal wetlands in Southern California and sits right in the heart of the city. Bring your binoculars to spot more than 325 bird species and get an insta-worthy photo of wildflowers, butterflies and feathered friends. The best part? Free admission!

3201 Plaza Del Amo, Torrance, CA • 310.782.3989

7 Del Amo Fashion Center

Rediscover your love of retail therapy at the chic and distinctive Del Amo Fashion Center, the third largest mall in the U.S.

3525 W Carson St, Torrance, CA • 310.542.8525

8 Torrance High School

Torrance has been the backdrop for more than 200 film and TV series episodes, including Torrance High School, built in 1917. The still operational school has hosted iconic TV shows like Buffy the Vampire Slayer and Beverly Hills, 90210.

2200 W Carson St, Torrance, CA • 310.533.4396

9 Mural at the Bluestem Hotel

Make sure you make a pit stop at the Bluestem Hotel to check out their 75-foot long mural. Within the bottom hedges of the mural are 142 illustrations depicting the iconic history of the city.

2448 Sepulveda Blvd, Torrance, CA • 310.539.9888

10 Los Arboles Rocketship Park

For a perfect selfie-op, head to Los Arboles Rocketship Park. The iconic four-level metal rocket and lunar module replica is a one-of-a-kind setting for 1960s playground scenes.

5101 Calle de Ricardo, Torrance, CA

Breweries

Ahead of the Los Angeles County beer scene, Torrance has been the center of craft breweries, brewpubs and beer-focused bars for years. Many spots are bringing fun beer gardens and setting up taproom parking lots so you can safely enjoy their award-winning brews.

Hotels

There's so much to do in Torrance, it's hard to leave – but as you venture out to other SoCal famous attractions, Torrance makes a perfect rest stop or home base. Not only will you get the best value, you'll get to avoid the crowds when you're winding down for the night.