The Ramen Capital OF SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA

Torrance is a ramen-lover's paradise. The restaurants are consistent in quality and service, and Torrance is a collective paradise known for its huge flavors. We've rounded up the eight-not-to-miss favorites so you can get a taste of "The Ramen Capital of Southern California."

- 1 Hakata Ikkousha Ramen
Grab an ordering sheet and create your custom bowl of ramen with fresh ingredients and noodles made in-house. Try the Mentaiko or God Fire with a side of crisp fried chicken — and don't forget the Goodness Gyozas.
21605 S. Western Ave., Ste J
- 2 Hokkaido Ramen Santouka
The delicious noodles and authentic taste of the famous Hokkaido Ramen Santouka shop in Japan are also available in Torrance. Try their delicious noodles in a full-flavor soup topped with select gourmet items for a true ramen treat.
3525 W. Carson St., Ste 164
- 3 Ko Ryu Ramen
Try the Garlic Bomb Ramen, K.O. Spicy Ramen and Shacho Ramen if you're the mildly daring type. If you love a dare, take the Ko Ryu Spicy Ramen Challenge. You may find yourself next to other brave souls on the Legends Challenge wall of fame.
24631 Crenshaw Blvd. & 21006 Hawthorne Blvd.

- 5 Ramen Izakaya Ajido
This ramen restaurant features a variety of menu items including their Spicy Red Miso Ramen and dishes with ever-so-delicious black shisen.
1730 W. Sepulveda Blvd., Ste 6
- 6 Ramen Josui
This ramen spot on the northern edge of Torrance features homemade ingredients like their soba noodles, la-yu sauce and Josui stock. Make it your own by adding a combination of customizable toppings including their extra spicy fire ball.
2212 Artesia Blvd., Ste B
- 7 Ramen Yamadaya
Tonkotsu broth ramen is a rich and creamy soup made after 20 hours of cooking to extract the greatest amount of flavor possible. Plan a visit Monday-Friday to enjoy a three-course meal at a sweet price.
3118 W. 182nd St., Ste 4036
- 8 Shin-Sen-Gumi
Pronounced "shin sen goo-me," this ramen puts the to-go in ramen with a drive-thru that is open seven days a week, including holidays.
18203 S. Western Ave., Ste 104
